

Adult Literacy

Literacy Program

The San Bernardino County Library offers an Adult Literacy Program which helps adults learn to read or improve their reading skill through one on one tutoring. Adult Volunteer tutors are trained through our program and paired with an adult learner to begin the program.

Adult Tutors

You can positively impact the life of a struggling adult learner by volunteering as a reading coach. Being a reading coach is a big responsibility but is also very rewarding. Prospective reading coaches in the Read to Learn Adult Literacy Program must:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Speak English well and possess good reading skills
- Have a High School diploma or GED

- Sign and agree to comply with the San Bernardino County Library's volunteer expectations and requirements
- Have an interest and willingness to teach basic literacy skills to an adult learner
- Have patience

Adult Learners

If you would like to learn to read, or know someone who would, this is a great program for you. This FREE program offers one on one, confidential tutoring to help you set and achieve literacy based goals, improve your reading skills and leave you more confident to succeed. Adults who are interested in this program should:

- Be at least 17 years of age and not enrolled in school
- Speak basic English
- Read or write below a 7th grade level
- Be willing to meet at the library for tutoring 2 hours per week for a minimum of 6 months

For more information, please contact one of our literacy sites listed below.
